II.2.4) Description of the procurement:

The European Central Bank has developed and maintained a database for bank specific data requests. The aim is to manage in a transparent and consistent way the recurrent micro-prudential data requests initiated either by the European Central Bank (ECB) or other supranational European Authorities (e.g. European Banking Authority, Single Resolution Board, etc.), via the Joint Supervisory Teams (JSTs), the horizontal functions of the ECB Banking Supervision, or by the National Competent Authorities (NCAs). The main objectives of the database are as follows:

- inform regularly the ECB Supervisory Board about the banks' reporting burden.
- inform reporting institutions on the data requests for each calendar year.
- facilitate the identification of data-point duplicates to allow a more efficient, effective and consistent set of supervisory reporting requirements towards supervised entities.

The contractor shall provide consultancy works and services for the enhancement and update of the SSM wide data collection database, by performing the following work and services (the 'Deliverables'):

- further enhance the database in terms of structure, flexibility and usability.
- update the database content in order to fill the gaps with existing data requests.
- enhance the ECB Single Data Dictionary structure to cope with maintaining SSM data requests.
- store SSM data requests into the Single Data Dictionary.
- identify a methodology to be shared with data request developers to update the Single Data Dictionary.
- training for the main stakeholders on the identified methodology to allow them to be able to create and update data requests.

The scope of the Deliverables is further specified in the contract and procurement documents.

The contract is constructed as a single-supplier framework agreement. The ECB may order Deliverables from the contractor in accordance with the ordering procedure set forth in the contract. The duration of the contract is 4 years.

Unless otherwise agreed, the contractor shall perform the Deliverables in English.
